VOLUNTARY DAY-AHEAD HOURLY PRICING (DAHP)

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

- (A) Hourly prices for electric power supply shall be posted by the Company on an internet website. Participating customers shall be responsible for obtaining price information from the website.
- (B) Metering: Each customer's entire service must be measured by one or more interval meters, and customers must maintain any associated control wiring in good working order. If the customer's service is not measured by one or more interval meters, provided in connection with other Company service requirements, the customer shall arrange for the furnishing and installation of interval metering with telecommunications capability, and arrange for telecommunications service, at the customer's sole expense, net of any available discount or rebate for metering equipment.
