M. Existing, Additional And New Allocations Defined

1. Rule for Allocations of Expansion and Replacement Power:

- a. Additional Allocations, as used in Special Provision L above shall be defined as allocations of Niagara Power approved by NYPA's trustees between February 1, 2002 and September 1, 2006 that were allocated exclusively to serve incremental load at the customer's premises. For the purpose of this provision, incremental load is load that is created by the construction or installation of new facilities (buildings, machinery and equipment) or expansion of existing facilities, provided that in the case of the expansion of existing facilities, incremental load shall not include the load of such facilities prior to expansion or addition.
- b. New Allocations as used in Special Provision L above shall be defined as all allocations of Replacement Power approved by NYPA's trustees on and after February 1, 2002 and those allocations of Expansion Power approved by NYPA's trustees on and after February 1, 2002 that are not "Additional Allocations," but shall not include Replacement Power that becomes available for reallocation prior to September 30, 2002 under Article V of the Agreement: "Allocation and Transfer of Replacement Power Pursuant to Niagara Contract NS-1" dated April 4, 1988; or Transfers and assignments of allocations from a customer premise / location on the Company's system (i.e., a change in ownership/occupancy of a premise / location will not be deemed "new").
- c. Existing Allocations as used in Special Provision L above shall be defined as allocations of Expansion and Replacement Power which are not New Allocations or Additional Allocations. A customer with one or more Existing Allocation may receive one or more New and/or Additional Allocations without causing its Existing Allocations to be classified as New or Additional Allocations under this service classification.

2. Rule for Allocations of CTC Exempt HLF Power

- a. Existing Allocations as used in Special Provision K above shall be defined as allocations of CTC Exempt HLF Power approved by NYPA's trustees prior to February 1, 2002.
- b. New Allocations as used in Special Provision K above shall be all allocations of CTC Exempt HLF Power which are not Existing Allocations. A customer with one or more Existing Allocations may receive one or more New Allocations without causing its Existing Allocations to be classified as New Allocations under this service classification.
