GENERAL RULES

24. Service Classification Riders (Available on Request) – Continued

RIDER Q - POWER FOR JOBS PROGRAM – Continued

C. Increase in Rates and Charges

The rates and charges under this Rider are increased by the applicable percentage as explained in General Rule 30 and shown on the related Statement.

D. Term

The term of service for each Customer is the term provided by the contract between the customer and PASNY, provided that if the customer's allocation is partially or completely withdrawn during the term, the term or amount of service under this Rider will be adjusted accordingly. The Customer may initiate a new term of service under this Rider if its contract with PASNY is extended.

E. Special Provisions

1. PASNY shall provide to the Company at least 30 days prior written notice for initial delivery of an allocation to an individual Customer, changes in the amount of such allocation, and termination of any such allocation, unless otherwise agreed upon by PASNY and the Company. Service will be initiated, modified, or terminated as of the Customer's first scheduled meter reading date on or before the end of such notice period.
2. Power and energy will be served under this Rider in accordance with General Rule 11.
3. For a fractional part of a billing period at the beginning or end of service under this Rider, or for fractional periods due to a withdrawal or other change in the Customer's Power for Jobs allocation, the capacity charge and portion of any applicable minimum charge and the amount of energy (except where the actual amount of energy used during the fractional period is known) that will be billed to the Customer under this Rider shall each be proportionately adjusted based on the ratio of the total hours of service under this Rider to the total number of hours in the billing period.
4. Load served under this Rider is not subject to charges and adjustments described in General Rule 25 and General Rule 26, except for the Additional Delivery Charges specified under this Rider.
