4.2 Albany, Buffalo, And Syracuse Markets, (Cont'd.)

4.2.1 ChoiceXchange Product Set, (Cont'd.)

B. Discounts

1. There are two ways a customer may receive a discount off of the monthly recurring charge for either a basic Xchange line or an Advantage line:
  - a. Term discount: Choice One offers savings to customers committing to a term agreement of 12, 36, or 60 months for all services
  - b. Multiple Services Discount: In addition to term discounts, customers may receive a discount for selecting both a ChoiceXchange and/or Xchange Advantage line and a qualified Choice One data products. Eligible data products include either DSL or T1 access to the Internet. Dial-up Internet access, Web Hosting and Web Design are not eligible products for this discount. The multiple services discount does not apply to customers taking services on a month-to-month basis.

The two methods of discounting referred to in Rules 1 & 2 above may be combined for greater savings. To qualify for the discount set forth in Rule 2 above, the Xchange service must be at the same physical service location as the eligible data product.

There are no available discounts for local Choice Call Packs.

NOTE: Many of the qualified data products referred to in subsection B.1.b. above are either deregulated or regulated solely as interstate services; such services, therefore, are not subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this tariff.
