ACCESS SERVICE

3. CARRIER COMMON LINE ACCESS SERVICE (Cont'd)3.7 Rate Regulations (Cont'd)

(D) (Cont'd)

- (4) The adjustment as set forth in (1), (2) or (3) preceding and (E)(1) and (2) following will be made to the involved customer account no later than either the next bill date, or the one subsequent to that, depending on when the usage report is obtained.
- (5) When the WATS-type and/or WATS usage is shown in hours, the number of hours shall be multiplied by 60 to develop the associated WATS-type and WATS minutes of use. If the WATS-type and/or WATS usage is shown in a unit that does not show hours or minutes, the customer shall provide a factor to convert the shown units to minutes.
- (6) The originating intrastate access minutes for Carrier Common Line Access, adjusted as set forth in (1), (2) or (3) preceding and (E) (1) and (2) following, whichever is appropriate, or any other section of this tariff, that are billed to a customer in a monthly period shall not be less than zero.
- (7) If the required documentation is not received by the Telephone Company, the previously reported information as described in 3.4 (F) and (G) preceding will be used for the next two months. For any subsequent month, no adjustment or credit will be made until the required documentation is delivered to the Telephone Company by the customer.
- (8) The adjustment as set forth in (1), (2) or (3) preceding and (E) (1) and (2) following will be made to the involved customer account after making the adjustments to the customer account as set forth in (F) following.

(E) When the customer orders access as set forth in 3.3(B) preceding subject to the limitation as set forth in 3.2 preceding, and the Telephone Company receives the information as set forth in 3.4(G) preceding, the customer will be billed as set forth in (1) and (2) following and (D) (4), (5), (6), (7) and (8) preceding.

- (1) Reported resold MTS/WATS or MTS/WATS-type usage as set forth in 3.4 (G) preceding will be apportioned between premium and non-premium access minutes for interLATA and intraLATA access minutes as set forth in 2.3.10 to adjust originating access minutes as determined in (D) (1), (2) and (3) preceding.
- (2) The minutes of use associated with the resold Company Private Line Services will be determined from the information provided by the customer as specified in 3.4(G). Such usage will be apportioned between premium and non-premium access minutes for interLATA and intraLATA access minutes as set forth in 2.3.10 to adjust originating access minutes to which Carrier Common Line Charges apply.
