3. RULES AND REGULATION (CONT'D)

3.7 Obligations of the Customer. (Cont'd)

3.7.10. Safeguards. In order to protect the Company's facilities and personnel and the services provided by the Company to other customers from potentially harmful effects, the signals applied to the Services shall not induce harmful voltage or currents either in the conductors or between the conductors and ground.

3.7.11. Operating Characteristics. When the Services are used in connection with Customer-Provided Equipment, the operating characteristics of such facilities shall be such as not to interfere with any other service offered by the Company. The use of such facilities shall not endanger the safety of Company employees or the public, damage or require change in or alteration of facilities of the Company, interfere with the proper functioning of such facilities, or otherwise injure the public in its use of the Company's services. Upon notice from the Company that any facility provided by the Customer is causing or is likely to cause such hazard or interference, the Customer shall take such steps as shall be necessary to promptly remove or prevent such hazard or interference.

3.7.12. Inspections. The Company may, upon reasonable notice to the Customer, make such inspections, including monitoring of the Customer's use of the Services, as may be necessary to determine that requirements of the Tariff are being complied with in the installation, operation and maintenance of Customer-Provided Equipment connected to Company facilities.

3.8 Application For Service, Service Period, Payment Arrangements and Credit Allowances.

3.8.1. Application for Service. The Company may require the Customer to submit an executed Service Order as a condition precedent to the initial establishment of the Services. The Company may make reasonable inquiries as to the credit worthiness of the Customer in order to determine whether or not at its discretion to accept the Customer's application for the Services. The Company may accept additions or changes to the Services verbally or in writing. Applications for the Services, including those for the installation, connection, repair, modification or termination of the Services, will be accepted only from the Customer or an authorized agent of the Customer.
