3. General Regulations
3.4 Responsibility of the Customer

3.4.1 Liability
A.	The customer shall be responsible for damage to facilities of the Telephone Company caused by the negligence or willful act of the customer or users.
B.	The customer shall be responsible for reimbursing the Telephone Company for any loss through theft of its equipment or apparatus on the customer's or user's premises.
C.	The customer shall be responsible for all actions or omissions of a person, firm or corporation appointed by the customer as its agent. Any limitation of an agent's authority shall not be binding on the Telephone Company.

3.4.2 Operating Characteristics of Customer Provided Equipment/Systems
A.	Where DDS is available under this tariff for use in connection with terminal equipment or communications systems provided by a customer or user, the operating characteristics of such equipment or systems shall be such as not to interfere with any of the services offered by the Telephone Company. Such use is subject to the further provisions that the equipment of a customer or user does not endanger the safety of the Telephone Company's employees or the public; or damage, require a change in or the alteration of the equipment or other facilities of the Telephone Company.

3.4.3 Telephone Company Installed Equipment
A.	The customer or user may not rearrange, disconnect, remove or attempt to repair any equipment installed by the Telephone Company without prior written consent of the Telephone Company.

3.4.4 Power
A.	The customer shall be responsible for the provision of the power required to operate the Telephone Company facilities installed on the premises of the customer or user.

3.4.5 Explosive/Hazardous Area
A.	The customer shall be responsible for the provision, installation and maintenance of sealed conduit with explosive-proof fittings between equipment furnished by the Telephone Company in explosive atmospheres and points outside the hazardous area where connection may be made with regular facilities of the Telephone Company, and may be required to install and maintain the Telephone Company's equipment within the hazardous area if, in the opinion of the Telephone Company, injury or damage to its employees or property might result from installation or maintenance by the Telephone Company.
