3. General Regulations

3.3 Responsibility of the Telephone Company

3.3.1 Liability

A. No liability shall attach to the Telephone Company for damages arising from errors, omissions, mistakes or delays of the Telephone Company, its agents, servants or employees, in the furnishing of the facilities, including the installation thereof, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct. Loss of profits by the applicant or subscriber in no event shall be considered as an element of damage for which the Telephone Company may be liable.

3.3.2 Testing and Inspection

- A. The Telephone Company may, upon notice to the subscriber, make such tests and inspections as may be necessary to determine that the provisions of Section 3.2.2 are being met in the installation, operation and maintenance of subscriber-owned equipment.
- 1. The Telephone Company may interrupt the channel at any time if, in its judgment, such action becomes necessary in order to protect the public, the Telephone Company's employees or its plant or services.
- B. The Telephone Company may test and adjust a channel as often as necessary at any time during regular business hours. No allowance for interruption of service is made for the time required to make such tests and adjustments. The subscriber shall provide his own means of ascertaining any inoperative condition of such channel when prompt detection of such condition is required for the subscriber's use.

3.3.3 Provisions of Service

- A. The Telephone Company's obligation to furnish channels in connection with educational TV systems is dependent upon its ability to do the following.
- 1. Secure and retain, without unreasonable expense, suitable channel frequencies, facilities and rights for the construction and maintenance of the necessary circuits and equipment.
- 2. Secure and retain, without expense to it, suitable space for its plant and facilities in the buildings where service is or is to be provided.
- 3. Secure, without unreasonable expense, electric power for line amplifiers,
- 4. Secure reimbursement of all costs where the owner or operator of a building demands relocation or rearrangement of the facilities.
- 5. Secure compliance with the provisions of Section 3.4.3 as to underground entrance construction.
