Leaf 27

Revision: Original

Section 2 - Rules and Regulations (cont'd)

2.2. Practices and Procedures (cont'd)

2.2.8 Advance Payments, Deposits and Guarantee of Payment (cont'd)

C. Guarantee of Payment

The Company may accept, in lieu of deposit, a Contract signed by a guarantor satisfactory to the Company whereby payment of a specified sum, not exceeding the deposit requirement is guaranteed. The term of such Contract shall be for no longer than 12 months, but shall automatically terminate after the Customer has closed and paid the account with the Company or at the guarantor's request upon 60 days' written notice to the Company. Upon termination of a guarantee Contract or whenever the Company deems same insufficient as to amount or surety, a cash deposit or a new or additional guarantee may be required for good cause upon reasonable written notice to the Customer.

The service of any Customer who fails to comply with these requirements may be disconnected upon notice as prescribed in the New York Rules. The Company shall mail the guarantor copies of all disconnect notices sent to the Customer whose account he has guaranteed unless the guarantor waives such notice in writing.

2.2.9. Initial Contract Periods

- A. Unless otherwise specified herein or elsewhere in the Telephone Company's Local and Intrastate Interexchange Exchange Tariffs, the initial (or minimum) period for service is one (1) month from the date service is established and the minimum charge is the established rate for one (1) month.
- B. The length of period for directory listings where the listings have been published is the directory period. The directory period is from the day on which the directory is first distributed to the Customers to the day the succeeding directory is first distributed to Customers.
- C. The Telephone Company may require a Service period longer than one (1) month at the same location in connection with (nonstandard) types or arrangements of facilities, or for unusual construction, necessary to meet special demands, and involving extra costs.
