SECTION 2-GENERAL REGULATIONS

2.9. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE DURING PERIOD OF FACILITY SHORTAGES

Whenever facilities are not immediately available to furnish service to all Applicants, the order of precedence for the use and restoration of service shall be in accordance with Part 64 Subpart D of the Federal Communications Commission's Rules and Regulations, which specifies the priority system for such activities.

Subject to compliance with the above mentioned rules, where a shortage of channels or equipment exists at any time either for temporary or protracted periods, the establishment of Long Distance Message Telecommunications Service shall take precedence over all other services.

Private line service may be limited in order to comply with orders issued under wartime authority of the President of the United States. It may also be limited in the case of those Private Line Services to, from or through a foreign country, by orders of the government of such country or by the United States Government.
