SECTION 1 - GENERAL REGULATIONS

2.6 CREDIT ALLOWANCES FOR INTERRUPTIONS

2.6.2 When Credit Allowance Does Not Apply (Cont'd)

- E. Interruptions which continue because of the Customer's failure to authorize replacement of any element of special construction. The period for which credit is not allowed, begins on the seventh day after the Customer receives AT&T's written notification of the need for such replacement. It ends on the day after receipt of the Customer's written authorization for such replacement,
- F. Interruptions during periods when the Customer elects not to release the local channel service for testing and/or repair,
- G. Interruptions caused by the failure of Private Line Services connected to a local channel service at an AT&T central office, or
- H. An interruption or group of interruptions, resulting from a common cause, for amounts totaling less than one dollar.

2.6.3 Use of Another Means of Communication - If the Customer elects to use another means of communications during the period of interruption, the Customer must pay the charges for the alternative service used.

2.6.4 Temporary Surrender of a Local Channel Service - In certain instances, the customer may be asked to surrender a local channel service for purposes other than maintenance, testing, repair, or activity relating to a service order. If the Customer consents, a credit will be given. One day's credit will be given for each 24 hour period or fraction thereof that the local channel service is surrendered.
