SECTION 2 - GENERAL REGULATIONS

2.7 CONNECTIONS (Cont'd)

2.7.1 General (Cont'd)

B. Responsibilities of the Customer - When access is connected at an AT&T central office the Customer assumes responsibility for the connection as follows:

1. Ordering - Unless AT&T is responsible for end-to-end service as described in 2.1.1 preceding, the Customer must make all arrangements concerning the access with its provider and must make arrangements with AT&T for the connection.
2. Compatibility With the AT&T Service - Unless AT&T is responsible for end-to-end service as defined in 2.1.1 preceding, the Customer is responsible for ensuring compatibility between the access and the AT&T service. This Customer responsibility applies at the initial installation and on a continuing basis as long as the connection is made.

When a connection of access is made at an AT&T central office and AT&T is not responsible for end-to-end service as defined in 2.1.1 preceding, AT&T does not warrant that any portion of the assembly will operate properly or that transmission will be satisfactory. If, however, a trouble condition is reported, AT&T will assure that the channels and components AT&T provides are operating properly with satisfactory transmission.

3. Interface Information - The Customer must specify the type of interface that is required.
4. Testing and Maintenance - If a trouble condition occurs on an assembly, the Customer is responsible for determining if the trouble is in the connected access. AT&T will only test and maintain its service.
