Section 9
Leaf No. 2
Revision: 0
Superseding Revision:

SECTION 9 - DIGITAL DATA LOCAL CHANNEL SERVICES

9.1 GENERAL (Cont'd)

9.1.2 Regulations (Cont'd)

- B. Credit Allowances for Interruptions - For purposes of determining credit allowance in accordance with the regulations in 2.6 preceding, a Digital Data Local Channel Service is considered to be inoperative when:

- There has been a loss of continuity on the local channel service, or
- The error performance is below the 99.875% error-free-seconds design objective.

- C. Connection of Channel Service Unit Functionality - The Customer is responsible for providing Channel Service Unit Functionality for each termination of a Digital Data Local Channel Service at a Customer's premises.

In the event that a trouble indication exists which necessitates a visit of a repair person to a Customer's premises because of the absence of a loop-back in the Customer's equipment, a maintenance of service charge will apply (see Maintenance of Service Charge, Section 13.1.5).

The connection of channel service unit functionality to Digital Data Local Channel Services shall be in accordance with Part 68 of the FCC's Rules and Regulations (Registration Program).

- D. Rates and Regulations for Channel Service Units in service as of November 18, 1983, are found in Section 14.4.

9.1.3 Minimum Payment Period - The minimum payment period for a Digital Data Local Channel Service or component is one month.

9.1.4 Notice of Discontinuance - The Notice of Discontinuance for a Digital Data Local Channel Service or component is 15 days. Recurring charges apply for a period of 15 days from the date AT&T receives the discontinuance notice or until the requested discontinuance date, whichever is later. During this period, the charges will continue to apply whether or not the Customer continues to use the local channel service or component.
