SECTION 39 - AT&T SCHOOL AND LIBRARY DISCOUNT PROGRAM

39.1 DESCRIPTION

39.1.1 General

The AT&T School and Library Discount Program permits eligible schools (public and private, grades Kindergarten through 12) and libraries to purchase the Company services offered in P.S.C. 22 at a discounted rate, in accordance with the Rules adopted by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) in its Universal Service Order 97-157, issued May 8, 1997 and the New York State Public Commission in its Opinion and Order 97-11 Adopting Discounts for Services for Schools and Libraries, issued June 25, 1997. The Rules are codified at 47 Code of Federal Regulation (C.F.R.) 54.500 et. seq.

As indicated in the Rules, the discounts will be between 20 and 90 percent of the pre-discount price, which is the price of services to schools and libraries prior to application of a discount. The level of discount will be based on an eligible school or library's level of economic disadvantage will be determined by the percentage of its students eligible for participation in the national school lunch program or other federally approved alternative measures to determine its level of economic disadvantage. To be eligible for the discount, schools and libraries will be required to comply with the terms and conditions set forth in the Rules. Schools and libraries may aggregate demand with other eligible entities to create a consortium.
