R. Restrictions and Limitations of Gas Service: (Cont'd.)

- (i) For the purpose of the foregoing restrictions, successor in a premises which has previously been served with gas, and which has existing operable gas equipment, shall be considered the existing customer.

Notwithstanding all of the foregoing provisions, the Company may at any time, refuse to accept additional applications for new or additional gas service, if, in its sole discretion, the Company believes that its supply and load circumstances are such that it cannot provide additional service without jeopardizing its already attached customers, provided, however, that the Company shall promptly advise the Public Service Commission of any such refusal, and the Public Service Commission shall have the right to require that the Company resume acceptance of some or all applications for service.

No applicant may rely on obtaining new or additional gas service unless and until his or her application is accepted by the Company. Unless otherwise specified in the Company's acceptance of an application, such acceptance shall only be binding upon the Company if the applicant is actually ready to take the new or additional gas service within 180 days after the date of such acceptance.

2. Minimum Insulation Standards for the Provision of Gas Service:

Gas Service will not be provided to a new dwelling, or to an existing dwelling for the purpose of converting a gas space heating, unless the dwelling is in compliance with Part 233 of Title 16 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York - Minimum Insulation Standards for the Provision of Gas Service. Copies of the Minimum Standards are available at the Company offices where applications for service may be made in person.

An applicant for gas service to an existing dwelling for the purpose of supplying gas heat must provide the Company of Certificate of Compliance in the form described in Rule X.6.
