C. Religious and Non-Religious Use: (continued)

1. Where non-religious uses (meaning use which is neither for religious nor for reasonably incidental purposes) are found to predominate, and such uses can be physically segregated and separately metered and billed from the religious use, the portion of the premises involving religious uses will, provided the customer elects to make the necessary piping changes that are the customer's responsibility, receive service under this Service Classification and the portion of the premises involving non-religious uses will receive service under the appropriate non-residential Service Classification.
2. Where non-religious uses predominate and such uses cannot be physically segregated and separately metered and billed, the entire premise will receive service under the appropriate non-residential Service Classification.

D. Non-Qualifying Uses:

Certain uses by religious organizations are typically not eligible for the residential rate, including but not limited to:

1. Colleges or Universities
2. Nursing Schools or Medical Schools
3. Hospitals
4. Nursing and Adult Homes
5. Recreational Facilities, Health Clubs or Physical Fitness Facilities
6. Publication of Religious Literature and Supplies
7. Bookstores
8. Stores for Sale of Religious Articles or Sacramental Wines
9. Lodging Homes or Quarters, unless otherwise applicable under S.C. 1
10. Radio or Television Stations
11. Clothing Stores, Thrift Stores or Donation Centers
12. Separately Metered Child Care Facilities

6. The Income Eligible Credit under this Service Classification is available to customers taking gas service from the Company who are certified to receive a Federal Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) grant. Enrollment will be limited to the funds available and may include limitations on availability such as a first-come, first-served policy. Once eligible, it is the customer's responsibility to remain certified for HEAP in order to continue receiving the Income Eligible Credit. The Income Eligible Credit is transferable with the customer to other premises as long as the customer remains eligible for the Credit.
