GENERAL INFORMATION

- .2.2.1 by mail, to the owner or party to whom the last preceding bill was issued, giving 18 calendar days; or
- .2.2.2 by personally serving or mailing it to the occupants, giving 15 calendar days; and
- .2.2.3 by posting it on a conspicuous place at or within the premises, unless prevented by physical circumstances.
- .2.3 Whenever a notice of termination of service has been made and the Corporation no longer intends to terminate service, the Corporation will so notify the occupants in the same manner as it gave the original notice.
- .3 Procedures to Avoid Termination of Service
  - .3.1 The Corporation may require the occupants in a two-family dwelling to pay no more than the current charges incurred by the party to whom the last preceding bill was rendered, and will not terminate service if the current charges are paid.
  - .3.2 The occupant may either:
    - .3.2.1 apply for service and be accepted as a customer, if eligible to do so as identified on the Application for Service section of this Tariff, in which case such person must be liable for future payments; or
    - .3.2.2 choose to pay current charges only, in which case such person will not be liable for future payments and future bills will continue to be rendered to the customer with a copy sent to any occupant upon request.
    - .3.2.3 set off the Corporation payments against their rents, in accordance with Subdivision 1 of 235 a of the New York State Real Property Law.
- .4 Physical Termination of Service
  - .4.1 The Corporation will terminate service only between the hours of 8:00 AM and 4:00 PM, Monday through Thursday, provided that such day or the following day is not:
    - .4.1.1 a public holiday as defined in the general construction law; or a day on which the main business office of the Corporation or the offices of the Public Service Commission are closed.
  - .4.2 The Corporation will not terminate service unless:
    - .4.2.1 it has verified that payment has not been received at any office of the Corporation or at any office of the authorized collection agent through the end of the notice period required by this tariff; and
