

- (E) Any equipment installed at the Customer's or End User's Premises for use in connection with the Services the Company offers will not be used for any purpose other than that for which the Company has provided it. The Customer agrees to operate Company-provided equipment in accordance with instructions of the Company or the Company's agent. Failure to do so will void Company liability for interruption of Service and may make the Customer responsible for damage to equipment as provided in this Tariff.
- F) The Customer agrees to return to the Company all Company-provided equipment delivered to Customer within five (5) days of termination of the Service in connection with which the equipment was used. Said equipment shall be in the same condition as when delivered to the Customer, normal wear and tear only excepted. Customer shall reimburse the Company, upon demand, for any costs incurred by the Company due to Customer's failure to comply with this provision.
- (G) The Customer shall be responsible for the payment of Service charges imposed on the Company by another entity for visits to the Customer's Premises when the Service difficulty or trouble report results from the use of equipment or facilities provided by any party other than the Company, including, but not limited to the Customer.

2.3.2 Interconnection of Facilities

- (A) Any special interface equipment necessary to achieve compatibility between the facilities and equipment of the Company and the channels, facilities, or equipment of others may be provided at the Customer's expense.
