

- (C) Service shall not be used to transmit a message, to locate a person, or to otherwise give or obtain information, without payment of the charges applicable to such use. A Customer shall use no device with the Service or facilities of the Company for the purpose of avoiding payment of the applicable charge or defrauding the Company.
- (D) Service shall not be used in any manner that interferes with other persons in the use of their Service, prevents other persons from using their Service, or otherwise impairs the quality of Service to other Customers. The Company may require a Customer to immediately cease use of Service if such use is causing interference with or impairing the Service of others.
- (E) If a Customer's use of Service interferes unreasonably with the Service of other Customers or End Users and that interference is believed by the Company to be related to the quantity or grade of Service that the Customer has purchased, the interfering Customer may be required to take Service in sufficient quantity, or of a different class or grade, or to cooperate with the Company to eliminate such interference.
- (F) The Services the Company offers shall not be used for any unlawful purpose or for any use as to which the Customer has not obtained all required governmental approvals, authorizations, licenses, consents and permits.
- (G) A Customer or Authorized User shall not represent that its services are provided by the Company, or otherwise indicate to its customers that its provision of services is jointly with the Company, without the written consent of the Company. The relationship between the Company and the Customer shall not be that of partners or agents for one or the other, and shall not be deemed to constitute a partnership or agency agreement.
