Availability of Firm Sales Service (continued)

A Customer may return to the Company for firm sales service under Uniform Business Practices for Retail Access in Sections VI.D and/or XI.

If during the initial year or in any subsequent year, the Company becomes aware of a disqualification of a customer's Seller, the Company will attempt to notify such Customer. If this notice cannot be accomplished or if this Customer does not notify the Company of its election of another qualified Seller within 30 days of this initial attempt at notification, the Company will assume at that time that the Customer has provided written notice of termination. During the period between when a customer's Seller has terminated supplying natural gas and prior to the Customer receiving gas either from a new marketer or under the Company Sales Services, the Company will provide gas to the Customer.

At any time outside this initial term, a Customer may return to firm sales service under Service Classification Nos. 1, 2, 3, 15, 16, and 17 following any term other than its initial term of service under this Service Classification if:

- (i) the Company has received timely written notice of termination under this Service Classification; and
- (ii) the Company deems such service to be generally available to new service applicants.

Statement of Unbundled Transportation Service Charges:

Not less than three (3) days prior to its effective date, the Company will file with the Commission a Statement of Unbundled Transportation Service Charges, which statement will contain the following charges applicable to this Service Classification: Daily Swing Service Demand Charge.
