GENERAL INFORMATION

4. Billing and Collections: (Cont'd.)

I. Meter Reading and Estimated Bills: (Cont'd.)

2. Estimated Bills: (Cont'd.)

(b) Estimated Billing – Non-Residential

2. No Access Procedure (Cont'd.)

(c) The series of no access notices shall be as follows:(Cont'd)

(iii) The third and each successive notice shall advise the access controller of the no access charge that has been added to the access controller's bill and, if the access controller's service can be terminated without obtaining access, will be accompanied by a final notice of termination for non-access. In any case where the access controller's service cannot be physically terminated without obtaining access, the notice will advise the access controller that the Corporation is seeking to obtain a court order to gain access to the customer's meter.

(d) A no access charge as provided by Section 3.E.3. will not exceed $100.

(e) No more than $100 per building or premises will be added to any single bill of the access controller even though more than one meter is located there.

(f) The Corporation may, at its discretion, suspend temporarily the issuance of no access notices and/or penalties under this subdivision if the access controller contacts the Corporation and provides a legitimate reason for postponing the provision of access; provided, however, that such suspension may not be utilized in the case of any account that is billed for demand charges and in no event for more than 90 calendar days.

3. Effective Date:

The non-residential rules of this section, revised December 21, 1987 will become effective March 18, 1988.
