

PSC No: 17 - Gas
Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation
Initial Effective Date: June 1, 2003

Leaf No. 129
Revision: 0
Superseding Revision:

SCHEDULE B

GAS BALANCING SERVICE

APPLICABLE TO USE OF SERVICE FOR:

Balancing of gas delivered by a Distribution Customer for its Retail Customer service points, or by a Direct Customer for its own service point(s), on the Distribution Provider's gas distribution system for which the Distribution Customer is taking delivery service under Schedule A of this tariff. Service is limited to any Distribution Customer which:

- a) Satisfies the credit and security requirements in Rule 2.A.(4) through 2.A.(8); and
- b) Agrees to the Customer Responsibility requirements listed in this service classification and the applicable provision contained in this tariff; and

CHARACTER OF SERVICE:

Dynamically matching the amount of gas delivered to the Distribution Provider's distribution system by the Distribution Customer with the amount of gas being used by the service points in the Distribution Customer's Balance Control Account, within the parameters set forth in this Schedule B.

CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITY:

Under this Schedule, the Distribution Customer is responsible for planning a gas supply sufficient for the needs of the service points in its Balance Control Account and for delivering gas to the Distribution Provider's system, and for meeting the requirements of all other provisions of this Schedule B. The Distribution Customer is responsible for payment to the Distribution Provider all charges associated with this service classification, including all daily and monthly cashout amounts, surcharges, penalties and applicable taxes.

BALANCE CONTROL ACCOUNT

The Retail Customer service points of a Distribution Customer taking delivery service under Schedule A of this tariff will be assigned to a Balance Control Account for balancing service. A separate Balance Control Account will be established for each type of balancing service elected by the Distribution Customer for its Retail Customer service points.

DESIGNATION OF THIRD PARTY AGENT

A Distribution Customer may designate a third party to act as agent for the Distribution Customer for the purposes of carrying out any of the required functions required by this Schedule. The Distribution Customer remains financially responsible for all rates and charges of this Schedule B.

ISSUED BY: James A. Lahtinen, Vice President Rates and Regulatory Economics, Rochester New York