

SECTION 3 – NY METROPOLITAN LATA (Cont'd)

g. Waiver of the Calling Card Added Charge for Residence

(1) General

Upon notice to the Commission, the Company will periodically waive the Calling Card added charge to new residential Calling Card customers to promote the service. The Company will waive the added charge associated with up to a maximum of thirty (30) intraLATA calls carried over the Company network and billed to a Company Calling Card during the first bill period for new residential Calling Card customers.

(2) Regulations

- (a) The Company reserves the right to issue a Calling Card promotion to new customers at any time upon 7 days notice to the Commission.
- (b) Terms and conditions in effect of each Calling Card promotion will be listed in the Attachment to this Tariff. The Attachment will follow all pages in this Tariff.
- (c) Appropriate notification of each promotion will be made.
- (d) The value of each promotion will not exceed the Calling Card added charge associated with 30 calls.
- (e) Each promotional offer will not extend beyond 90 days.
- (f) New residential Calling Card customers are those who request a Company Calling Card during the promotion period or do not have a Company Calling Card associated with their account. New residential Calling Card customers do not include those who request an additional Calling Card or replacement of their Calling Card.

Issued by: Sean M. Dandley, CEO, Lexington, Massachusetts