SPECIAL PROVISIONS (continued)

E. (Continued)

(3) RELIGIOUS AND NON-RELIGIOUS USE (Continued)

- i. Where non-religious uses (meaning use which is neither for religious nor for reasonably incidental purposes) are found to predominate, and such uses can be physically segregated and separately metered and billed from the religious use, the portion of the premises involving religious uses will, provided the Customer elects to make the necessary piping changes that are the Customer's responsibility, receive service under this Service Classification and the portion of the premises involving non-religious uses will receive service under the appropriate non-residential Service Classification.
- ii. Where non-religious uses predominate and such uses cannot be physically segregated and separately metered and billed, the entire premise will receive service under the appropriate non-residential Service Classification.

(4) NON-QUALIFYING USES
