SERVICE CLASSIFICATION NO. 3

RESIDENTIAL AND RELIGIOUS - HEATING FIRM SALES SERVICE

All residential uses and purposes where gas is used for space heating, when the gas is supplied directly by the Company: (Continued)

- (4) for the operation of building equipment for the common benefit of the occupants in a two or three-family dwelling or building or for redistribution to residential tenants or occupants for cooking when the piping is arranged for supply of service through a single meter of one of the flats or apartments, provided, however, that on or after October 24, 1991, or at the expiration of a lease or rental agreement for the flat or apartment entered into on or before October 24, 1991, whichever is later, service will be supplied under this Service Classification only when the piping is arranged for the supply of service through the meter of the owner's flat or apartment in the dwelling or building. Where gas is used for both space heating requirements in a two or three-family dwelling and is redistributed for non-heating uses and purposes within individual flats or apartments in a two or three-family dwelling, the account must be established in the name of the owner.
- (5) for use in structures or equipment accessory to a one, two or three-family dwelling or building (for example, a private garage, guest or service house, outdoor lighting or equipment, and similar improvements), when the accessory structures are located on the same premises as such dwelling or building;
- (6) for use in furnished rooms rented by the Customer or table board supplied to occupants thereof, when such renting or board is incidental to the residential occupancy by the Customer of a dwelling, flat or apartment and the number of rooms rented or offered for rent does not exceed one half of the number of rooms in the dwelling, flat or apartment and the number of boarders, roomers or lodgers does not exceed four.
