Interruptible Sales Credits - Continued*(C) Determination of the Interruptible Sales Credits - Continued

- (3) a reconciliation of annual interference expenses as authorized in the Public Service Commission's Opinion and Order in Case 90-G-1001, dated October 3, 1991;
- (4) the cost of interruptible plant related to interruptible (Service Classification No. 9 - Interruptible, Service Classification No. 12) Customers from the Interruptible Sales Credit account. Commencing October 1996 and continuing thereafter until changed, the Company will reduce the monthly Interruptible Sales Credit account balances by $92,756 per month. If in any month the Interruptible Sales Credit account balance is insufficient to recover the monthly cost of interruptible plant, then the difference between the monthly interruptible plant cost and the account balance will be carried over to the succeeding month until recovered; and
- (5) interruptible sales credits, if any, used to fund the Competitive Retail Choice Credit in Rate Provision J.7 of Service Classification No. 9 or the Winter Bill Credits in General Information Section IX.7.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Interruptible Sales Credit account balance is greater than $20,568,000 for the 12-month period September 30, such account balance over $20,568,000 will be reduced to recover 86 percent of the property tax increase above the imputed amount recovered in base rates. For the twelve months ended September 30, 2001, the Company will be permitted to recover any such property tax increase if the Interruptible Sales Credit account balance is greater than $20,568,000 reduced by:

- (1) revenue amounts used to fund the Competitive Retail Choice Credit in Rate Provision J.7 of Service Classification No. 9; and
- (2) interruptible sales credits refunded to firm sales and transportation customers over the twelve months ended September 30, 2001 that are in excess of what would normally be refunded during that period, absent the accelerated treatment of interruptible sales credits in Paragraph 7 of this General Information Section IX - Special Adjustments.

(D) Filing of the Monthly Interruptible Sales Credits

The Interruptible Sales Credits for each month shall be shown separately on the Statement of Gas Adjustment and in the Statement of Rate to Service Classification No. 9 filed with the Public Service Commission for that month.
