SERVICE CLASSIFICATION No. 1AR

RESIDENTIAL NON-HEATING REDUCED RATE SERVICE

Applicable to Use of Service for:

Applicants for this rate must be the customer of record and provide proof of current enrollment at the time of application in one of the following programs: Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Home Relief, Supplemental Security Income, Medicaid, Food Stamps, Home Energy Assistance Program, Veteran's Disability Pension or Veteran's Surviving Spouse Pension. The use of gas for domestic purposes other than space heating by a single residential consumer residing in a one-family or a two-family dwelling and in separately metered apartments of a multiple dwelling; also in two-family houses for use in appliances supplying water heating, where such service are rendered in common to both families; also water heating in rooming houses and multi-family buildings having not more than five individual dwelling units, wherein not more than 50% of the cubical content is occupied by non-residential activities and such services are rendered in common to all families.

Further, by order issued September 25, 1996 in Case 95-G-0761, the Public Service Commission approved a stipulation and agreement that restricted the maximum number of customers under Service Classification Nos. 1AR and 1BR to 27,000, in fiscal year 1997 (October 1, 1996 - September 30, 1997). However, any new participants in 1997 will be SSI recipients only. In fiscal year 1998, the maximum number of customers under Service Classification Nos. 1AR and 1BR will be 32,000, and that maximum will increase each fiscal year thereafter by 5,000 customers per year, through fiscal year 2002, when the maximum number of customers will be 52,000; however, beginning in fiscal year 1998, and continuing through fiscal year 2002, all new customers must be either SSI recipients or "vendorized" customers pursuant to which payment for these customers' gas service charges is received by the Company directly from the New York City Human Resources Administration. In all cases, vendorized customers will receive preference over SSI recipients for participation in Service Classification Nos. 1AR and 1BR.
