Standby Gas Service:

The Company will provide a back-up to the gas supply of any Customer subscribing to Standby Gas Service. Customers that are Human Needs Customers electing transportation service under this service classification are required to subscribe to Standby Gas Service for the duration of their Firm Transportation Service Agreement. Human Needs Customers are customers who or which cannot be without sufficient energy backup and will need to call upon the local utility company in the event all of his or its alternative energy options fail. Examples of such customers would include, but are not limited to, schools, hospitals, dwellings where gas is used for heating, cooking and comparable residential requirements, and facilities providing essential public services.

Standby Gas Service will be offered to Non-Human Needs Customers to the extent the Company has excess capacity and gas supply available. The Company will not be obligated to provide gas to any Customer who does not subscribe to this service on any day when gas is not delivered to the Company for transportation by the Company to the Customer's facilities.

The Company will provide Standby Gas Service for a maximum of forty-five (45) consecutive days. If deliveries of gas to the Company for transportation to Customer's facilities do not recommence within forty-five (45) days after initial interruption, any such Customer will become a firm gas sales customer of the Company and may be required to remain as such for at least one year.
