(Rate Codes: 330, 331, 332)

Special Provisions (continued):

- b. If the Company is unable to determine the precise amount of unauthorized gas taken during the period of interruption from the remote reading device, the Company will estimate the amount of gas used during the unauthorized period. The method of estimation shall be based on either:
 - 1) the normal average daily consumption, and if applicable, adjusted for degree days, or
 - 2) other reasonable methods.
- c. Where a condition is experienced by a customer which prevents the required interruption of gas use, the customer will not be charged the additional charge if the customer:
 - 1) immediately notifies the Company, and
 - 2) takes immediate action to correct such action, and
 - 3) notifies the Company when such condition is corrected, and
 - 4) corrects the condition within a four-hour period.
- d. The imposition of an addition charge should not limit any rights of the Company to terminate gas service in accordance with provisions of the Company's Rate Schedule or otherwise.
- e. In the even the Company finds that gas is being used during an interruption period, and that its interruption would create a danger or threat to health and safety, the Company:
 - 1) may not interrupt gas use, and
 - 2) such customer will be charged the additional charge for such gas use.
