SERVICE CLASSIFICATION No. 11 - Continued

II. Consumption in Excess of Deliveries:

- (a) Rates TS-2, TS-4A, TS-4B, TS-5A, TS-5n and TS-6C, TS-6G, TS-6M:
All gas consumed in any month in excess of the quantity of customer-owned gas delivered to the Company for transportation during the month, less system use and losses, shall be deemed to be gas purchased by the customer from the Company and shall be billed at the rates and charges of the Company's sales service classification that would otherwise be applicable to the customer.
- (b) In addition to the applicable sales service classification rates and charges described in II(a), a surcharge related to storage and pipeline demand charges shall be paid each month, during the period November to April, both inclusive, by all customers served under Rates TS-2, TS-4A and TS-4B who have not elected to reserve the option to return to firm sales service, for all gas delivered to the customer during these months in excess of the quantity of customer-owned gas delivered to the Company during such months, less system use and losses.
- (c) A surcharge related to pipeline demand charges shall be paid each month by all consumers serviced under Transportation Service Rates TS-2, TS-4A and TS-4B who have elected to reserve the option to return to firm sales service, as per the Service Agreement. Said surcharge shall be computed annually and shall be applied to all transportation quantities.

III. In addition to the foregoing charges, an additional charge shall be paid by any consumer for gas consumed in violation of the applicable provisions of the appropriate sales Service Classification including, but not limited to failure of the consumer to interrupt service after notice has been given by the Company in accordance with the terms of the consumer's applicable sales Service Classification. Such additional charge shall be the charge specified under the Additional Charge provisions of the applicable sales Service Classifications of this Schedule for Gas Service.
