GENERAL INFORMATION24. STANDBY SERVICE AND STANDBY SERVICE RATES

Standby Service is applicable to sales and delivery of electric power supply provided by the Company, or delivery of electric power supply provided by an Energy Service Company under the Company's Retail Access Program or by NYPA under Riders B and/or O, for standby purposes subject to the provisions contained herein. More specifically, this service is available:

- (1) to replace and/or to supplement the power and energy ordinarily generated by a customer by means of a private generating facility on their premises; or
- (2) for station use by a customer that is a wholesale generator. "Station Use" includes power and energy used by the customer at its premises in connection with its generating facility (a) during periods when such needs are not served by the generator and (b) to restart the generator after an outage. This service also applies to wholesale generators that require service when their own generating equipment is not sufficient to meet the station loads, provided that the service is not served under a separately-metered account.

Subject to the provisions dealing with interconnected operations set forth in this section of the Tariff and the regulations governing interconnected operations that are incorporated herein, by reference, the customer's generator may be connected for:

- (1) parallel operation with the Company's service; or
- (2) isolated operation with Standby Service provided by the Company by means of a double-throw switch.

Customers who take Standby Service with on-site generation equipment having a total nameplate rating equal to more than 15 percent of the maximum potential demand served from all sources, are Phase One NEM customers served under paragraphs (D) or (H) of the Applicability section of Rider N, or are Value Stack customers served under paragraphs (D), (H), or (K) of the Applicability Section of Rider N, are required to be billed under Standby Service rates, unless they are exempt pursuant to 24.5(A) or 24.5(D) of this General Information Section.
