TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

SECTION 2 – REGULATIONS, (CONT'D.)

2.5 Obligations of the Subscriber

- 2.5.1 The Carrier shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Subscriber against claims of libel, slander, or the infringement of copyright, or for the unauthorized use of any trademark, trade name, or service mark, arising from the material transmitted over the channels, against claims for infringement of patents arising from, combining with, or using in connection with, lines furnished by the Carrier, apparatus and systems of the Subscriber, and against all other claims arising out of any act or omission of the Subscribers in connection with the channels provided by the Carrier.
- 2.5.2 The facilities provided by the Carrier may be terminated in Subscriber-provided terminal equipment or Subscriber-provided communication systems. When such terminations are made, the Subscriber shall comply with the minimum protective criteria generally accepted in the telephone industry or other appropriate criteria as may be prescribed by the Carrier and as specified in Part 68 of the Federal Communications Commission's Rules which provides the technical and procedural standards under which the Subscriber's equipment may be directly connected to the public switched network.
- 2.5.3 The equipment and facilities which are connected with those of the Carrier shall be constructed, operated, and maintained by those providing same so as to work satisfactorily with the service furnished by the Carrier. Such equipment and facilities shall be suitable to avoid hazard or damage to Carrier's plant or of injury to Carrier's employees or to the public because of the character of location of such equipment or facilities and sources of power to which it is connected. In cases in which additional protection equipment is required, this shall be provided by the Subscriber or by the Carrier at the Subscriber's expense.
