Rule 3 - Definition of Terms (continued)

Non-Residing Applicant: A developer, builder, person, partnership, association, corporation or governmental agency requesting electric service be provided where there is no service currently available, where that service shall be used in a residence occupied by others.

Arrears - Charges for which payment has not been made by the Customer more than twenty (20) calendar days after payment was due.

Collective Billing - A service whereby the Company shall add together the charges for multiple accounts and provide the Customer with a single bill.

Combined Billing - The aggregation of the billing determinants of two or more meters of the same Customer at the same location for billing purposes.

Commission - The New York Public Service Commission or any lawful successor thereto.

Company - Pennsylvania Electric Company.

Connected Load - The sum of the horsepower, kilowatts or kilovolt ampere ratings of all the devices located on a Customer's premises which are connected to the Company's electric system, or which can be connected simultaneously by the insertion of fuses or by the closing of a switch. The manufacturer's nameplate rating may be used to determine the input rating of a particular device. In the absence of such manufacturer's rating, or whenever a Company test indicates improper rating of a device, the rating shall be determined on the basis of the kilovolt-amperes required for its operation.

Contract Demand - The capacity required for operation of an Applicant's / Customer's equipment, as stated in any application or contract for service.

Customer:

Residential Customer: A person who is receiving service at a dwelling for his or her own residential use or the residential use by another person. For purposes of the Home Energy Fair Practices Act (HEFPA), a Residential Customer includes any person who is supplied service at a premises used in whole or in part as his or her residence, as defined in 16 NYCRR 11.2(a)(2).

Non-Residential Customer: A person, corporation or other entity receiving service who is not a Residential Customer as defined in 16 NYCRR 11.2(a)(2).
