Rule 24 - Deferred Payment Agreement (continued)

Company shall demand full payment and send a final notice of termination in accordance with 16 NYCRR, § 11.4, Termination of Residential Service, 16 NYCRR, § 11.10, Residential Customer Deferred Payment Agreements, and Rule 22, Discontinuance of Service Residential of this Tariff.

B. Non-Residential Customers

The Company shall provide a written notice offering a Deferred Payment Agreement - Non-Residential as shown in Rule 31, Form #9 to an eligible Non-Residential Customer not less than five (5) calendar days before the date of a scheduled termination of service for non-payment of arrears, as indicated on a final termination notice, or eight (8) calendar days if mailed, provided the Customer has been a Customer for at least six (6) months and the arrears on which the outstanding termination notice is based exceeds two (2) months average billing, and when a backbill is rendered, which exceeds the cost of twice the Customer's average monthly usage or One Hundred Dollars ($100), whichever is greater; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to offer an agreement when the Customer knew, or reasonably should have known, that the original bill was incorrect.

If the Company and a Customer agree to terms of a Deferred Payment Agreement - Non-Residential in a telephone conversation, the Company shall send the Customer two (2) fully completed copies of the agreement, signed by the Company, for the Customer to sign and return.

Any Customer is eligible for a Deferred Payment Agreement - Non-Residential except the Company does not have to offer a Deferred Payment Agreement - Non-Residential to a Customer who owes any amounts under a prior Deferred Payment Agreement - Non-Residential, or a Customer who failed to make timely payments under a prior Deferred Payment Agreement in effect during the previous twelve (12) months, or a Customer that is a publicly held company, or a subsidiary thereof, or a seasonal, short-term or temporary Customer, or a Customer who, during the previous twelve (12) months, had a combined average monthly billed demand for all its accounts with the Company in excess of 20 kW, or who registered any single demand
