and may seek any other legal remedies it may have under applicable law or principles of equity relating to such Event of Default, which other remedies shall be in addition to the right of termination provided herein.

The following shall constitute Events of Default:

- A. if a Defaulting Party fails to comply with any of the material terms and conditions of this Tariff or a Service Order, including any payment obligations; provided, however, that except for a failure to pay monies when due hereunder, a Party shall not be in default under any Service Order unless and until the Non-Defaulting Party provides the Defaulting Party written notice of such default and the Defaulting Party shall have failed to cure the same within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice or such longer period as the Non-Defaulting Party may authorize in writing (the "Cure Period"); provided, further, that where such default cannot reasonably be cured within such Cure Period, the Cure Period shall automatically be extended for such period of time as may be required to complete such curing, provided that the Defaulting Party proceeds promptly to use reasonable commercial efforts to cure the default with due diligence and provides written progress reports to the Non-Defaulting Party during any extension of the Cure Period. Any Event of Default may be waived at the Non-Defaulting Party's option. Upon the failure of the Defaulting Party to timely cure any such default within the Cure Period, the Non-Defaulting Party may pursue any legal remedies it may have under applicable law or principles of equity relating to such breach. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section or the Tariff generally, the Cure Period applicable to a failure to pay monies when due under any Service Order shall be ten (10) days; or
- B. if a Defaulting Party (i) commences a voluntary case or other proceeding seeking liquidation, reorganization, or other relief with respect to itself or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law, now or hereafter in effect, or (ii) seeks the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian, or other similar official of it or any substantial part of its property, or (iii) consents to any such relief or to the appointment of or taking possession by any such official in an involuntary case or other proceeding commenced against it, or (iv) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or (v) generally fails to pay its debts as they become due, or (vi) takes any corporate action to authorize any of the foregoing; or
