SECTION 6 - MISCELLANEOUS CHARGES (Cont'd)

6.3 Billing & Collection (Cont'd)

6.3.2 Automatic Number Identification (ANI)

ANI provides the automatic transmission of a seven or ten digit number and information digits to the Customer's premises for calls originating in the LATA, to identify the calling telephone number. The ANI feature is an end office software function which is associated on a call-by-call basis with (1) all individual transmission paths in a trunk group routed directly between an end office and a Customer's premises or, where technically feasible, with (2) all individual transmission paths in a trunk group between an end office and an access tandem, and a trunk group between an access tandem and a Customer's premises.

A. Rate Regulations

When ANI is delivered (with Feature Group D originating) and the Customer is charged the recording rate as set forth in the rate schedule, following, the ANI rate does not apply. If the Customer is not charged the recording rate, the ANI rate as set forth in the rate schedule will apply for each ANI record delivered to the Customer.

B. ANI Restrictions

The company provides Automatic Number Identification (ANI) associated with intrastate service to an entity (ANI recipient) only under the following terms and conditions:

1. The ANI recipient or its designated billing agent may use or transmit ANI information to third parties for billing and collection, routing, screening, ensuring network performance, and completion of a telephone subscriber's call or transaction, or for performing a service directly related to the telephone subscriber's original call or transaction.
2. The ANI recipient may offer to any telephone subscriber with whom the ANI recipient has an established Customer relationship, a product or service that is directly related to products or services previously purchased by the telephone subscriber from the ANI recipient.
3. The ANI recipient or its designated billing agent is prohibited from utilizing ANI information to establish marketing lists or to conduct outgoing marketing calls, except as permitted by the preceding paragraph, unless the ANI recipient obtains the prior written consent of the telephone subscriber permitting the use of ANI information for such purposes. The foregoing provisions notwithstanding, no ANI recipient or its designated billing agent may utilize ANI information if prohibited elsewhere by law.
