GENERAL INFORMATION – Continued

- (2) agreed in writing to pay to the Company:
- (a) the material and installation costs relating to any portion of the service line, service connections and appurtenant facilities located on his/her property that exceeds the portion which the Company is required to install without charge;
  - (b) any surcharge relating to the portion of the main and appurtenant facilities that exceeds the portion which the Company is required to install without charge as set forth in Leaf Nos. 16 and 17; and
  - (c) the rates charged like customers; and
- (3) furnished reasonable security as to the performance of his/her agreement, if required to do so by the Company.

D. Additional Facilities and Rights-of-Way

The applicant's responsibility for additional facilities and the furnishing of right-of-ways or agreement to pay costs for such is set forth in Leaf Nos. 16 and 17.

- E. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may refuse any application for new or additional gas service if the Company determines that it does not have adequate gas supply and/or capacity to prudently meet the requirements of such applicants in addition to the requirements of its existing customers. In the event of such determination, the Company will file a notice with the Public Service Commission indicating the areas of the Company's system, and the size of prospective customers, the Company has determined it can no longer serve. The Company will immediately notify the Commission if/when any such restriction on new customer load is lifted.
