GENERAL INFORMATION*13. Wind Electric Service Options*D. Remote Net Metering (Cont'd)*III. Enrollment and Change Period

After the customer's initial application, the enrollment and change period is from January 1 through January 31. Any changes shall be effective with the initial Host Account billing after March 1.

Remote Net Metering customers may submit a change request form annually during the change period to designate additional Satellite Accounts or delete existing active Satellite Accounts. The customer may also change the portion (percentage) of excess to remain at the Host Account once per year.

IV. Calculation and Application of Net Metering Credits*a. Application of Monetary Credits to Host Account:

In a month where the Host Account has Excess Generation, the Excess Generation shall be converted to the equivalent monetary value at the per kWh rate applicable to the Host Account's service classification. The remote net metering credit shall first be applied to any outstanding charges on the Host Account's current electric bill.

For Non-hourly Pricing customers, remote net metering credits shall be defined as the Excess Generation multiplied by the Host Account's applicable tariff per kWh rates. For Hourly Pricing customers, as defined under Billing for Hourly Pricing customers, remote net metering credits shall be defined as the excess monetary credit.

b. Application of Monetary Credits to Satellite Accounts:

Any remaining monetary credit from the Host shall be allocated to each Satellite Account in accordance with the Host Account designation pursuant to Section II. The portion designated for the Satellite Accounts shall be applied to the Satellite Account bills as each subsequent Satellite Account bill is calculated. If a monetary credit remains after applying credits to all designated Satellite Accounts, the credit shall be carried forward on the Host Account and the allocation process between Host and Satellite Accounts shall repeat until the value of the excess credit is zero, or until all associated accounts are finalized.
