2. GENERAL REGULATIONS

2.1 DEFINITION OF TERMS (Cont'd)

Casual Caller

The term "Casual Caller" denotes any person who uses the Company's Casual Caller Service from an equal access end office who does not have a current account with the Company, to include:

- Any person who has not established an account with the Company who places calls over the Company's network from an equal access area.
- Any person located in an equal access area that voluntarily terminated their Company account as set forth in Section 2 but continues to make calls over the Company's network.
- Any person located in an equal access area that has had their account terminated in accordance with the terms and conditions as set forth in Section 2 but continues to make calls on the Company's network.
- New or allocated customers whose accounts are not yet established in the Company's billing system.

The terms, conditions and rates as specified in Sections 3 and 5 of this Tariff apply to all calls made by Casual Callers. By placing a call on the Company's network, a Casual Caller accepts and agrees to the Casual Caller terms and conditions and rates. The Company will file Tariffs with the New York Public Service Commission that apply to Casual Callers who use dial-around 1+ Services.

CenturyLink Local Operating Companies (a.k.a. CenturyLink LOC)

The term used to describe CenturyLink's Local Exchange Carriers (LECs).
