- a. Service may be used for any lawful purpose by the Customer or the Customer's authorized agent or Customer.
- b. The Customer obtains no property right or interest in use of any specific type of facility, service, connection, equipment, number, process, credit

4.6. Termination or Denial of Service by Carrier

- a. The Carrier may immediately and without notice to the Customer, without liability of any nature, temporarily deny, terminate, or suspend service to any Customer in the event such Customer or his agent willfully damages company equipment; interferes with use of Carrier's service by other Customers of the Carrier; unreasonably places capacity demands upon Carrier's facilities or service; or violates any statute or provision of law, or any rule or regulation of any state or federal regulatory agency relating to communications, or otherwise fails to comply with the provisions of this tariff or applicable law.
- b. In the event the Customer is the subject of any voluntary or involuntary petition or proceeding in bankruptcy, seeks protection or relief from creditors in a bankruptcy court, or executes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or in the event of nonpayment of any bill rendered by the Carrier, or the non-payment of any required deposit, the Carrier may terminate service two days after written notice is delivered to the Customer or its authorized agent, or five days after such notice is mailed by first class mail to the Customer or his authorized agent.

In the case of non-payment of any bill or deposit, service need not be restored until the bill rendered or the required deposit has been paid; provided, however, that in the case of any Customer capable of obtaining access to local exchange service only through the Carrier's system, local service may not be terminated until ten days after delivery of written notice or thirteen days after mailing written notice by first class mail.
