2.0 RULES AND REGULATIONS (CONT'D)

2.14.1 Provision of Equipment (Continued)

D. Unless otherwise agreed upon between Company and Customer, Company shall not be responsible for the installation, operation, repair or maintenance of any Customer-provided communications equipment. Customer may connect such equipment to Company as provided in this Tariff, as allowed by law, or with Company's consent. Unless otherwise specified in this Tariff or in an agreement between Company and Customer, Company will not be responsible for the maintenance, repair and operation of such Customer-provided equipment, and Company will not be responsible for:

1. The transmission of signals by Customer-provided equipment or for the quality of, or defects in, such transmission; or
2. The reception of signals by Customer-provided equipment.

E. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that Customer-provided equipment and facilities connected to Company equipment are compatible. The magnitude and character of the voltages and currents impressed on Company-provided equipment by the connection, operation or maintenance of Customer equipment and facilities shall be such as not to cause damage to the Company-provided equipment or facilities of Company's underlying carriers or injury to the Company's employees or to other persons. Customer will submit to Company, upon request, a complete manufacturer's specification page for each item of equipment that is not provided by Company and which shall be attached to Company's equipment or facilities of Company's underlying carriers. Company shall approve the use of such item(s) of equipment unless such item is technically incompatible with Company's equipment or the facilities of Company's underlying carriers. Any additional protective equipment required to prevent such damage or injury shall be provided by the Company at the Customer's expense.
