8. Purchase of Company Facilities (Continued)

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section F 8, the customer may file an application with the PSC at any time to determine if there is public interest for the PSC to commence a proceeding to facilitate the sale by the Company to the customer of all of the Company's street lighting Facilities serving the customer, other than those electric facilities also used by the Company to serve other customers. Any such petition must comply with the requirements of § 70-a of the Public Service Law and with the requirements of the PSC's Rules of Procedure, 16 N.Y.C.R.R. Part 3, and any other applicable requirements, all as modified and in effect from time to time.

Nothing in this Section F 8 shall prevent the Company from agreeing to sell less than all of its street lighting Facilities, subject to the approval of the PSC under §70 of the Public Service Law.
