4. Billing and Collections: (Cont'd.)

B. Late Payment Charge: (Cont'd.)

2. Service to State Agencies shall be rendered in accordance with the provisions of Article XI-A of the State Finance Law (Chapter 153 of the Laws of 1984, effective July 1, 1984.)
3. Application of late payment charges may be waived by the Company.

C. Rendition and Payment:

- A. Bills shall be deemed rendered, and other notices duly given, when delivered to the Customer personally or when mailed to the Customer at the premises supplied, or at the last known address of the Customer, or when left at either of such places, or when posted electronically. Failure to receive such bill, either by mail, personally, or electronically, shall not entitle the Customer to any delay in the settlement of each month's account nor to any extension of the date after which a late payment charge becomes applicable.
- B. Payment by mail properly stamped, addressed, and mailed on or before the past due date indicated on the bill as evidenced by the United States postmark, shall be deemed to be payment prior to the application of late payment charges. Payment made via electronic funds transfer (EFT) shall be deemed paid on the date that funds are transferred from the Customer's bank account. A request by the Customer for adjustment of bills or any other complaint does not extend the date of the undisputed portion of bills which have been duly rendered.
- C. Customers receiving standard bills produced and issued by the Company's automated billing system, excluding specialized bills, may elect to receive and pay their bill through a participating bank or vendor under the Company's Online Billing (OLB) option. Under OLB, a bill shall be deemed rendered when posted electronically. Payment under OLB shall be considered made prior to the past due date if the Customer's bank, vendor, or authorized collector indicates that such a Customer's payment was made by the past due date as indicated on the bill.
 1. Dishonored Payment
Should the Company receive a negotiable instrument from an applicant or customer in payment of any bill, charge or deposit due, and such instrument be subsequently dishonored or be uncollectible for any reason, the Company shall charge a fee of $20.00 to the applicant or customer, as permitted by General Obligations Law Section 5-328.
