b. Host Account closure

- i. For non-residential Host Accounts, any remaining monetary credits will not be cashed out or transferred.
- ii. For Farm Wind Host Accounts, any remaining monetary credits will be cashed out at avoided cost of the supply. For Non-hourly Pricing customers, the cash-out payment shall be equal to the product of the kWh excess multiplied by the average avoided cost for the energy for the billing period in which the excess occurred. For Hourly Pricing customers, the payment shall be for the remaining portion of the excess credit priced at avoided cost. Any remaining non-avoided cost monetary credits are reset to zero.
