GENERAL RULES

24. Service Classification Riders (Available on Request) - Continued

RIDER U – DISTRIBUTION LOAD RELIEF PROGRAM – Continued

J. Reservation Payment Option - Continued

7. Performance Factor - Continued

- e. The Performance Factor for purposes of calculating the Reservation Payment and the Three-Year Incentive Payment for an ANR will be determined as follows:
 - (i) For an ANR enrolled in 2014, the Aggregator's monthly Performance Factor for the applicable network will be used until the month of the first Contingency Event, Immediate Event, or Test Event of the 2015 Capability Period, after which the individual ANR's monthly Performance Factor will be used;
 - (ii) For an ANR enrolled for the first time after 2014, the Aggregator's monthly Performance Factor for the applicable network will be used until the month of the first Contingency Event, Immediate Event, or Test Event, after which the individual's ANR's monthly Performance Factor will be used; and
 - (iii) The Performance Factor for an ANR in a network for which the Aggregator does not have a historical Performance is 1.00.

8. Application of Payments

Reservation Payments will be calculated on a monthly basis. Payments will be made by bill credit, check or wire transfer.

9. Testing

The Company may require a Direct Participant or Aggregator to participate in one or more Test Events, each for a period not to exceed one hour, commencing at a time determined solely at the Company's discretion. The Company will give at least two hours' advance notice of the Test Event to the same representative or alternative representative that was designated in writing by the Direct Participant or Aggregator to receive notice of a Load Relief Period (pursuant to section D.2 of this Rider).

The Company will make a payment for one hour of energy up to the contracted amount using the calculation specified in section J.6 of this Rider for the Load Relief achieved.
