Re: Supplemental Filing in Case 15-G-0185

Dear Secretary Burgess:

Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation ("Central Hudson" or "the Company") hereby submits the proposed tariff amendments listed below:

P.S.C. No. 12- Gas

10th Revised Leaf No. 169
3rd Revised Leaf No. 169.1
14th Revised Leaf No. 175.1
8th Revised Leaf No. 175.2
6th Revised Leaf No. 202
6th Revised Leaf No. 203

Pursuant to Public Service Commission Order, issued and effective December 16, 2016 in Case 15-G-0185, amendments to the above tariff leaves were originally filed on December 30, 2016 to become effective January 1, 2017 on a temporary basis. The following modifications were prepared after discussion with staff. Removal of the reference to a specific temperature in the tariff which will be moved to the Gas Transportation Operating Procedures (GTOP), the terminology fuel oil provider was revised to alternate fuel supplier and the communication protocol was updated to be an agreed upon communication between the customer and the Company.

Additionally, the Company is seeking a waiver to change the temperature from 20 degrees to 15 degrees as originally stated in the Order. The above tariff leaves are filed as a supplemental filing in Compliance with Case 15-G-0185 to become effective February 14, 2017.

Consistent with the Order the Company requests a waiver of newspaper publication requirements of Public Service Law §66(12) (b) of the Public Service Law.

Questions related to this filing should be addressed to Glynis Bunt at gbunt@cenhud.com or Jennifer Lorenzini at jlorenzini@cenhud.com.

Yours very truly,

Anthony S. Campagiorni
Vice President
Regulatory & Governmental Affairs
