Re: Case 19-G-0379 – Proceeding on Motion of the Commission as to the Rates,
Charges, Rules and Regulations of New York State Electric & Gas Corporation for Gas Service

Dear Secretary Phillips:

In accordance with the Public Service Commission's Order Approving Electric and Gas Rate Plans in Accord With Joint Proposal, issued and effective November 19, 2020, New York State Electric & Gas Corporation (the "Company"), hereby files the Revenue Decoupling Mechanism ("RDM") Statements to be effective January 1, 2023.

RDM Statement No. 29 to PSC 87 - Gas
RDM Statement No. 29 to PSC 88 - Gas

In accordance with General Information Section 22 of NYSEG's tariff schedule PSC No. 90, if at any time during the Rate Year the cumulative difference between the actual billed revenues per customer and the cumulative target revenue per customer is 1.50% or more, the Companies will file an interim RDM Adjustment for each service classification.

The Company is filing an interim RDM Adjustment, a surcharge, to be applied to the following service classifications:

PSC No. 87 Service Classifications 1 and 2;
PSC No. 88 Service Classifications 1, 5, 13 and 14;

The Revenue Decoupling Adjustment Mechanism Statement will be filed on not less than 10 days' notice.

Honorable Michelle L. Phillips
December 15, 2022

In accordance with PSC No. 90, General Information Section 22.3, the interim RDM Adjustment is limited to no more than once per year, and will be recovered over the longer of four months or the end of the rate year. The interim RDM Adjustment filed herein will be in effect through April 30, 2023.

Very truly yours,
