RE: Case 22-M-0159, Proceeding to Implement Customer Credits and Reimbursements Pursuant to Public Service Law Section 73

Dear Secretary Phillips:

Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (the “Company”) is filing with the Public Service Commission (the “Commission”) amendments to its Schedule for Gas Service, P.S.C. No. 9 – Gas (the “Gas Tariff”), applicable to its customers in the City of New York and the County of Westchester. The revised Gas Tariff Leaves, which are identified below, are filed to become effective on July 25, 2022.

Reason for Filing

This filing is made pursuant to the Commission’s Order Implementing Public Service Law Section 73, issued and effective July 14, 2022, in Case 22-M-0159 (the “Order”). The Order directed the Company to file tariff amendments in conformance with the Order to compensate residential and small business customers who experience widespread prolonged outages pursuant to Public Service Law Section 73.

Tariff Changes

Pursuant to the Order, the Company is making the following changes to the Gas Tariff:

- The Company added General Information Section III. 8. (Y) to the Gas Tariff to include provisions from the Order related to compensation to customers who experienced widespread prolonged outages.
- The Company modified the liability section of the Gas Tariff to specify that the Company will compensate customers following widespread prolonged outages as described in General Information Section III. 8. (Y).

Conclusion and Notice

As directed by Ordering Clause 2 of the Order, the tariff amendments are filed on not less than three days' notice to become effective on July 25, 2022. The Company requests that the requirements of Section 66(12)(b) of the Public Service Law and 16 NYCRR Section 720-8 as to newspaper publication be waived, as the Company will publish this information on its website.

Respectfully submitted,
