RE: Case No. 22-M-0159 – Proceeding to Implement Customer Credits and Reimbursements Pursuant to Public Service Law Section 73

Dear Secretary Phillips:

Orange and Rockland Utilities, Inc. (the “Company”) is filing with the Public Service Commission (the “Commission”) amendments to its Schedule for Electric Service, P.S.C. No. 3 – ELECTRICITY (the “Electric Tariff”). The revised Electric Tariff leaves, which are identified below, are filed to become effective on July 25, 2022.

Reason for Filing

This filing is made pursuant to the Commission’s Order Implementing Public Service Law Section 73, issued and effective July 14, 2022, in Case 22-M-0159 (the “Order”). The Order directed the Company to file tariff amendments in conformance with the Order to compensate residential and small business customers who experience widespread prolonged outages pursuant to Public Service Law Section 73.

Summary of Tariff Changes

Pursuant to the Order, the Company is making the following changes to the Electric Tariff:

- The Company added General Information Section 7.20 to the Electric Tariff to include provisions from the Order related to compensation to customers who experienced widespread prolonged outages.

- The Company modified the existing sections of the Electric Tariff providing for credits to customers who experience prolonged outages (General Information Section 7.17) and providing reimbursement for customers for spoiled food and medicine after certain outage events (General Information Section 10.1). Consistent with the Order, the modifications specify that when customers are eligible to receive compensation under General Information Section 7.17, they will not be eligible to also receive compensation under General Information Sections 7.17 and 10.1.

Conclusion and Notice

As directed by Ordering Clause 2 of the Order, the tariff amendments are filed on not less than three days' notice to become effective on July 25, 2022. The Company requests that the requirements of Section 66(12)(b) of the Public Service Law and 16 NYCRR Section 720-8 as to newspaper publication be waived, as the Company will publish this information on its website.
