Implementation of this tariff change prior to the start of the start of the winter heating season is essential to ensuring supply adequacy and system reliability to the Company's core gas customers. The Company proposes to eliminate the "two-strike" rule, which requires non-firm customers provided service under of Service Classifications 5 and 6 to convert to firm service if they fail twice to switch to their alternate fuel when required by the Company during the winter period. The Company will impose financial penalties to customers who consume gas in violation of their service classification which will be priced at the higher of 1) two times the sum of the daily market gas price of natural gas plus the underlying transportation rate 2) nine times the applicable sales rate or 3) two times the equivalent daily market oil price.

If you have any questions regarding this filing, please call Dawn Herrity at (718) 403-2975 or Dawn.Herrity@us.ngrid.com.

Respectfully submitted,
